

The Governing Board of the Faculty of Nursing Science of the Episcopal University of Haiti is seeking short-term (2-4 weeks), volunteer nursing faculty members to teach the theory portions of clinical courses and some non-clinical courses. PhD-prepared preferred. MSN required. Courses could be team-taught if the faculty members were able to establish effective communication with each other.

| Course | Time |
|--|--|
| Fundamentals of Nursing | 2-4 weeks (45 hours of lecture/lab) anytime from October to February |
| Maternity Nursing | 2-4 weeks (45 hours of lecture) anytime from October through July |
| Pediatric Nursing | 2-4 weeks (45 hours of lecture) anytime from October through July |
| Community Health/Public Health Nursing With special emphasis on Haiti | 2-4 weeks (45 hours of lecture) anytime from October through July |
| Psychiatric./Mental Health Nursing | 2-4 weeks (45 hours of lecture) anytime from October through July |
| Medical/Surgical Nursing | 2-4 weeks (60 hours of lecture) anytime from October through July |
| Leadership in Nursing | 2-4 weeks (30 hours of lecture) anytime from March to July |
| Management Principles for Nurses | 2-4 weeks (30 hours of lecture) anytime from March to July |
| Nursing Research | 2-4 weeks (45 hours of lecture) anytime from March to July |
| Pharmacology | 2-4 weeks (45 hours of lecture) anytime from October to February |
| Nutrition (Faculty member need not be a nurse) | 2-4 weeks (45 hours of lecture) anytime from October to February |
| Psychology with Haitian cultural focus (Psychologist preferred) | 2-4 weeks (45 hours of lecture) anytime from October to February |